In 1900, he and his second wife, Harriet, were residents of Mt Hope. According to Ardillis' obituary from 1909, "he was born near Columbus OH and spent the early part of his life in Ohio. His father dying, left him to care for the mother and younger sisters and brothers. In 1852, he left his native state to seek his fortune in the gold fields of California. Sickness caused him to return to Ohio and in 1858, accompanied by his mother, he came to Wisconsin. After spending some time in Madison, he finally located at Mt Hope where an older brother John Adams, and a sister, Mrs. H. H. Harlacher, lived, and later moved to Fennimore. He enlisted in the Union Army in 1861, serving three years in Company M of the 4th Missouri Cavalry. He was stationed in the west and with his brother, Lieut. Andrew Adams, fought under Generals Fremont, Sigel and Wallace. He was mustered out in 1864 and returned to Mt. Hope."

(Notes: Shuey and his second wife, Emily, were residents of Liberty Twp., Licking Co., OH in 1900. They reported that they had been married 8 years and Emily had had no children. Shuah's son, Harry was living with them. In 1910, Emily was a married person living alone in Johnstown. Again, she stated she had had no children. Shuah and Emily were residents of Monroe Twp., Licking Co., OH in 1920. The birthdate given on Shuah's death certificate was May 1, 1864 and in 1900 it was given as May, 1848. The 1857 date seems to be the correct one based upon Shuah's position and age in the household of his parents in 1860 and 1870. Shuah died in Johnstown, Licking Co., OH of "mitral regurgitation" with the contributing cause stated as "sclerosis of the liver and nephritis". He was buried in Green Hill Cemetery, Licking Co., OH.)
